- (3) Defendants shall make, keep, and preserve accurate and complete records of their employees and of the wages, hours, and other conditions and practices of employment maintained by them as prescribed by the Regulations issued pursuant to Section 11(c) of the Act and found at 29 CFR Part 516.
- (4) Defendants shall not discharge or take any retaliatory action against any employee because the employee engages in any of the following activities:

- III. ORDERED that in the event that any one installment payment is not made within 10 days of the due date as set forth above, all remaining installment payments become due immediately. Neither defendants nor anyone acting on their behalf shall directly or indirectly solicit or accept the return or refusal of any sums paid as back wages under this Judgment.
- IV. ORDERED that the defendants shall advise all their employees in English and their native language of the employees' rights under the Fair Labor Standards Act, including the payment of minimum and overtime wages and the rights of employees to engage in activity protected by the Act without fear of retaliation. This advice to employees shall take place within 30 days of the entry of this Judgment on a workday.

- V. ORDERED that defendants shall place posters provided by the Wage and Hour Division with information about the FLSA where employees may view them.
- VI. IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED that neither the commencement of this action nor the provisions of this Consent Judgment shall in any way affect, determine, or prejudice any and all legal rights of any employees or former employees of defendants not listed in Schedule A to file any action against defendants under Section 16(b) of the Act, or likewise for any current or former employee listed in Schedule A to file any action against defendants under Section 16(b) of the Act for any violations alleged to have occurred after November 1, 2006.

VII. IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED that each party will bear its own fees and other expenses incurred by such party in connection with any stage of this proceeding.
